

Exploring the Civic Curriculum

Friday 9 June 2017 in the Great Hall, University of Leeds

MORNING PROGRAMME

UG.09 (Great Hall building)

9:00 Registration and refreshments

Great Hall

9:30 Welcome and introduction from Raphael Hallett (LITE)

9:50 Opening plenaries

Dilly Fung (UCL): A Connected Curriculum for Higher Education

Mark Schofield (Edge Hill University): Towards a concept of solution-focused teaching

11:00 Q&A with plenary speakers

11:15 Coffee and refreshments

11:30 Parallel sessions (3 x 20-minute papers)

The Politics of Civic Engagement (Great Hall)

James Derounian et al. (University of Gloucestershire): Stepping out – from ivory tower to good neighbour

Kath Owen (LJU, University of Leeds):
The political classroom

Catherine Coombs (University of Leeds): Citizenship and the History student – embedding the ‘real world’ in the curriculum

Great Hall

12:40 Building Civic Curricula in Sheffield

Andrew Middleton, Charmaine Myers and Graham Holden (Sheffield Hallam University): Connecting the curriculum with civic opportunities

Lee Crookes (University of Sheffield): Developing an infrastructure for engaged learning and teaching

Great Hall

1:30 Lunch

Designing the Civic Curriculum (UG.09)

Kevin Linch, Tim Procter (University of Leeds) and Vicky Grindrod (West Yorkshire Archives): Engaging postgraduate students with regional history and heritage

Mark Hinton (University of Warwick):
Who engages with whom, in civic engagement?

Suzanne Hallam (University of Leeds):
Sociology in action – reflections on embedding civic engagement

Exploring the Civic Curriculum

Friday 9 June 2017 in the Great Hall, University of Leeds

AFTERNOON PROGRAMME

Great Hall

2:15 Exploring Civic Identity and Citizenship (3 x 20-minute papers)

Kirsty Finn (Lancaster University): Regional stickiness – local HE students and the anxieties of planning for the future

Fiona Chapel, Olivia Garvey and Catherine Bates (University of Leeds): Widening participation and active citizenship – an adult education perspective

Piers von Berg (University of Birmingham): Formation of identity and individualization among undergraduate law students

3:30 Parallel sessions (3 x 20-minute papers)

The Ethics of Regional Research (Great Hall)

Melanie Prideaux (University of Leeds): The ethics of Undergraduate research

Henry Irving (Leeds Beckett University): Integrating research into a Civic Curriculum

Charlotte Haigh (University of Leeds): Public engagement with research in a Civic Curriculum

Expanding the Civic Sphere UG.09

Robert Partridge (University of Leeds): Civic leadership – made in Leeds and New York

Cathy Hampton (University of Warwick): Embedding the global in the local

Charles Dannreuther (University of Leeds): BREXIT as a teachable moment?

Great Hall

4:30 Coffee

4:45 Lightning presentations (3 x 10-minute presentations)

Vikki Burns (University of Birmingham)

Diana Pritchard (University of Bedfordshire)

Alastair Smith (University of Warwick)

5:15 Closing plenaries

Sue Hayton (Cultural Institute, University of Leeds): Responding to and taking risks with educational and learning spaces

Shelley Budgeon (University of Birmingham): Liberal Arts and Science – an inherently Civic Curriculum?

5:55 Closing remarks with Raphael Hallett (LITE)

6:00 LITE drinks reception

